

“Gives me heads up on developments I would miss...It’s a good resource...Appreciate stories out of western Mass....It is easy to use... We’d like more topics.”

Massachusetts Broadcasters

“CNS stories focus on substance, not sensationalism. Their success shows that it is possible to include more voices and create compelling news stories about serious issues that directly affect the lives of regular people. We don’t need more coverage of celebrities and scandals. What people need is what CNS provides: quality news programming focused on the real information everyone needs to be active citizens in our democracy.”
